

Most animals scent mark their territory.

Pandas mark by using handstands to impress female pandas + to intimidate rivals.

Could you imagine?

- humans behaving so uncouthly?
 - humans don't pee, they put up fences
 - use perfumes

Guy's - you have been lied to!

- 7) sexual selection - who does it?
No + the male

• Females:

- Get one egg per month
- Carry the baby internally
 - feed, complications, sharing resources

• Males:

- sperm is cheap
- chose to walk away at any time
