

BUILDING RAPPORT

CHANCE!

What a smooth talker!
Move to the beginning of the “Fact Finding” phase.

CHANCE!

You urgently need to go to the bathroom. Leave the interview and go back to the “start” square.

In one minute or less,
tell us about yourself.

finding our office today?

Have you visited our location before?

What has been the greatest disappointment in your life?

If you could relive the last 5 years of your life, what would you do differently?

How do you evaluate success?

What is your greatest strength?

What are your hobbies?

How do you think a friend or professor who knows you well would describe you?

Describe your most rewarding college experience.

Why did you select your college or university?

What college subjects did you like least? Why?

If you could do so, how would you plan your academic studies differently?

Do you think your grades are a good indication of your academic achievement?

What have you learned from participation in extracurricular activities?
