

EVALUATION

What interests you about this job?

CHANCE!

What a great personality!
Move forward to the end of the “Evaluation” phase.

CHANCE!

You are becoming way too nervous! Relax, and go back to the “sh” square in the “Fact Finding” phase.

Why do you want this job?

What applicable characteristics do you have that make you the ideal candidate for this job?

Why should we hire you?

What do you know about this company?

Why do you want to work here?

What challenges are you looking for in a position?

What can you contribute to this company?

Are you willing to travel
for business purposes?

What prompted you to study your major?

Tell me about a time when you had to communicate information to a group of people.

Tell me about a significant achievement in your life.

Tell me about a time where you had to work towards a deadline.

Did you meet it?

If not, what would you do differently next time?.

Tell me about the most fun
you have had on the job.

Tell me about a time when you helped resolve a dispute between others.

How do you propose to compensate for your lack of experience?

If you were hiring a person
for this job,
what would you look for?

What would your previous supervisor say your strongest point is?

Tell me about your dream job.

Describe a contribution you have made to a project on which you worked.

Was there an occasion when you disagreed with a supervisor's decision or company policy?
Describe how you handled the situation.

Describe a situation in which you worked as part of a team.

What role did you take on?

What went well and what did not?

Give an example when you took initiative in a situation and what was the outcome.

How do you set priorities?

How would you evaluate your ability to deal with conflict?